

Name: Frans Meulenberg
Function: Research-associate 'ethics and fiction'
Phone: +31 6 61841074
Email: f.meulenberg@erasmusmc.nl
Room: Na 21.09

Research subjects

-Ethics, Literature, Fiction, Medicine, Metaphors, Narrative, Representation, Ageing

Biography

He studied Dutch literature and language (University of Amsterdam). Subsequently he worked as a staff member in a general hospital and as a manager of the Department of Guideline Development (Dutch College of General Practitioners, Utrecht). Ever since 2002 he works as research-associate in Rotterdam. Furthermore he is a freelance science-writer, mainly focusing on the relationship between literature, medicine and ethics (personal website: www.woordenwinkel.nl – in Dutch).

Publication

Meulenberg F, De Beaufort ID (Eds)
Science, Fiction, and Science-fiction – The role for fiction in public debates on medical ethical issues and in the medical education
Overveen: Belvedere
978-90-73459-32-8

(more publications Frans Meulenberg)

Consultative and advisory activities

-Advisory Board of the CISYNBIO project ('on the representation of synthetic biology in films'). European Union, Vienna 2008-2012
-Programmacommissie Kennis Kwaliteit Curatieve Zorg (KKCZ), ZonMw, 2007-2012
-Secretary Board of the Culture Zeeland, 2008-2013
-Advisor Dutch Foundation for Literature
-Advisor Dutch Association for Dermatology